DAISY AWARD

Congratulations to Nyketa Gaffney as she is the recipient of SPCA Cincinnati's Daisy Award!

"I am the Public Information Officer for SPCA Cincinnati. My responsibilities include, but certainly are not limited to: public & community relations, TV/radio, crisis management, utilizing SPCA's marketing tools (i.e. social media, press writing, etc.) to inform the public of the organization's mission, assisting Volunteer Services with Humane Education, working with Development for campaign initiatives & meeting sponsorship goals, loving on the shelter companions and other duties as assigned! Most interesting thing about the job— the pets...hands down. Puppies are simply love embodied. My interests: quality family time, listening to music and planning my daughter's future. I have one child. Her name is Aaliyah. No pets yet, and my daughter is annoyed by it. One of my favorite affirmations: be the change you want to see in the world." —Nyketa

Retirement Lifestyle Planning

More people in the United States are retired or approaching retirement than ever before. A lot of these people plan and save to ensure their financial stability during retirement, but too many fail to develop strategies for exactly what they'll do with their lives during those years.

It's never too early or too late to begin a life plan for retirement. You'll probably revise it many times before you reach retirement age, whether that's in 5 years or 25. No matter when you kick off your plan, you're less likely to have difficulty adjusting to retirement if you've thought in advance about what you want it to be like. Planning offers several benefits:

- Gathering information for your retirement helps clarify your options and may lead to some surprising opportunities.
- Having a plan can help you deal with the loss of a career and a work identity.
- Planning is an exercise in goal setting that can help you accomplish more and feel fulfilled.

Thinking about what you want to do, where you want to live, what you want your relationships to be like, and what you want your lifestyle to be are all good places to start your planning. Write down your goals in each of these areas, and keep them with your financial plan. Change them as necessary.

Phases of Retirement

Like going through adolescence or becoming a parent, retirement is a time of change that can cause turmoil and stress—as well as tremendous personal growth. Retirement changes your lifestyle, your perceptions of yourself, and what you do with your time...

Help SPCA Cincinnati Win $1000!

We need your help!

As part of the marketing leading up to our participation in The Standard's 2019 Volunteer Expo, we have entered a video contest against other Cincinnati area non-profits! The organization whose video has the most Facebook views by August 28 wins $1000! Please watch the video – it's such an easy way to help us receive a donation while also showing support and appreciation for our amazing volunteers!
